

REMARKS

The specification and claims are edited to attend to the non-art rejections based thereon. None of this editing is narrowing and, therefore, no Festo-like limitations should arise therefrom.

The rejection of claims under 35 USC 102 for anticipation by the cited Adams-Ray, et al. patent is traversed on the basis of the ceiling-side locations claimed. Such locations are not shown in the patent and therefore, not obvious therefrom, either.

Reconsideration and allowance are, therefore, requested.

Respectfully submitted,

---
